

Court of Appeals, State of Michigan

ORDER

In re King/Koon Minors

Docket No. 352610

LC No. 19-004809-NA

Michael F. Gadola, Judge, acting under MCR 7.211(E)(2), orders:

The motion to produce complete record and to extend time for filing is GRANTED. Within a reasonable time after entry of this order the trial court shall mail or email to appellant's counsel copies of the complete, unredacted trial court register of actions and the complete social file for this case. See MCL 712B.11. The trial court shall also file with this Court a notice of the date it mailed or emailed those items to appellant's counsel. Further, within a reasonable time, the trial court shall either order preparation of the transcript of the hearing apparently held on December 3, 2019 at public expense or mail or email to appellant's counsel a statement that no hearing was held on that date if that is the case. Again, the trial court shall file with this Court a copy of either its order for preparation of the December 3, 2019 transcript or a statement that no hearing was held that date. Appellant's brief on appeal shall be due 28 days after the latter of (1) the date of appellant's counsel being mailed or emailed copies of the complete, unredacted trial court register of actions and the complete social file or (2) the date of the filing of the transcript of the December 3, 2019 hearing or mailing to appellant's counsel of notice that no hearing was held on the record on that date.

The Clerk's Office shall send copies of this order to the Clerk's Office of the Grand Traverse Circuit Court – Family Division and to Judge Melanie D. Stanton.
